Approach

IL-120 is a major connection between US-14 and Historic Downtown Woodstock. IL-120 carries East/West traffic to US-14 and all the way to Lake Michigan. It travels through many cities in McHenry and Lake counties.

Closeup

As the county seat for McHenry County, Woodstock is rich in history and tradition. It is world renowned for Dick Tracy Days, whose creator Chester Gould lived and drew the comic strip from his home in Woodstock for 46 years. Woodstock is the 3rd largest city in McHenry County and is home to Klassen Pickle. It also has one of the premier Hospital Districts in the northwest suburbs. Its historic downtown square is a dining, shopping and cultural center. Its natural beauty and historic value drew the attention of Hollywood who used it as the site for filming the movie Groundhog Day.
