Approach

Algonquin Rd is a major commuting route between Southern McHenry County and Lake/Cook County. For local traffic it connects Randall Rd., Highway 47, and Highway 31. Algonquin Rd. serves Algonquin, Lake in the Hills and Huntley.

Closeup

In 2000, Huntley had a population of a mere 5,730 people. In 2006, the Census Bureau estimated the population to be just over 20,000. A growth of over 350% in only 6 years! Huntley is home to many industrial employers such as Weber Grill, Allied Asphalt and Dean Foods. Huntley is best known for it's Outlet Mall and the Sun City Retirement Community, the largest retirement community in the midwest. Huntley's slogan is "The friendly village with country charm", and even after such staggering growth it truly lives up to it.
